IMAGINE

Planet of the Unexpected

About 8 minutes | Ages 5-11 | Play alone or together

Materials: Paper and crayons

1. Invent a planet where one everyday rule is different.
2. Draw two things visitors would see there.
3. Explain how people on your planet play a game.

Finished when: Your planet has two sights and a game.

My favourite moment or idea:

1 ☐ 2 ☐ 3 ☐ 4 ☐

MOVE

Slow-Motion Moon Walk

About 5 minutes | Ages 5-11 | Play alone or together

Materials: A clear floor space; two markers

1. Mark a short route on a clear floor.
2. Walk along it slowly as if exploring the moon.
3. Return using tiny steps and finish with a comfortable astronaut pose.

Finished when: You complete the route in two gentle ways.

My favourite moment or idea:

CREATE

Tabletop Space Station

About 10 minutes | Ages 5-11 | Play alone or together

Materials: Safe blocks or small boxes; paper

1. Arrange safe blocks or boxes into a station on a table or floor.
2. Add a sleeping area and a place to grow imaginary food.
3. Draw a sign and give a visitor a tour.

Finished when: Your station has two areas and a name.

FIND

Space Supply Search

About 5 minutes | Ages 5-11 | Play alone or together

Materials: No equipment

1. Point to something round that could inspire a planet.
2. Find something soft that could inspire an astronaut bed.
3. Choose a safe small object to imagine as a spaceship; ask before using it.

Finished when: You spot three pretend space supplies.

KINDNESS

Message to Mission Control

About 7 minutes | Ages 5-11 | Play alone or together

Materials: Paper and a pencil

1. Think of someone who has helped you recently.
2. Write or draw a thank-you as a message from space.
3. Deliver it with a kind greeting and adult help if needed.

Finished when: Your space thank-you reaches its recipient.

My favourite moment or idea:

1 ☐ 2 ☐ 3 ☐ 4 ☐

SILLY

Alien Weather News

About 5 minutes | Ages 5-11 | Play alone or together

Materials: An imaginary microphone

1. Invent a planet with wonderfully strange weather.
2. Give a short forecast and a silly but kind tip for visitors.
3. Let someone else report, or invent a second forecast yourself.

Finished when: Your alien news includes a forecast and a tip.

My favourite moment or idea:

TOGETHER

Our Constellation Story

About 8 minutes | Ages 5-11 | 2 or more players

Materials: Paper and pencils

1. Each player draws a few dots on the same sheet.
2. Take turns connecting dots into an imaginary constellation.
3. Choose its name together and tell a story about it.

Finished when: Everyone contributes to your constellation.

My favourite moment or idea:

1 ☐ 2 ☐ 3 ☐ 4 ☐

OUTSIDE

Daylight Space Lookout

About 5 minutes | Ages 5-11 | Play alone or together

Materials: A grown-up; a safe outdoor spot

1. Look at the sky from a safe spot or a window with a grown-up.
2. Keep your eyes away from the sun and notice two cloud shapes.
3. Imagine how a spaceship might travel between those shapes.

Finished when: You spot two clouds and imagine a route.

My favourite moment or idea:

SURPRISE

Mystery Planet Landing

About 7 minutes | Ages 5-11 | Play alone or together

Materials: Three slips; pencil; bowl

1. Draw an animal, an everyday object and a colour on separate slips.
2. Pick two and imagine they are clues about a new planet.
3. Describe a gentle adventure that could happen there.

Finished when: Your two clues inspire a planet adventure.
